6	Presentation - Subject Selection Online (SSO): Michael Camilleri delivered a SSO presentation to the Board. Key points included: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• MLSHS will be initiating a new process for subject selection. This semi-automated system, produced by CountryNet, the developers of Parent Teacher Online (PTO), is more efficient and will allow additional parent involvement. This service is being offered free of charge for the first year. Future costing forecasted at approximately $1,500.00 per annum.</li> <li>• Year 10s going into Year 11 are the target group. This could be expanded in the future.</li> <li>• Selecting correct subjects is critical for students and the school. This system will alert students and parents to pre-requisites, mandatory subjects and subject-related costs.</li> <li>• Students login via a secure internet link to the school's SSO site and choose subjects. These choices can be monitored, revised and updated. Teachers will be able to add subject recommendations.</li> <li>• Additional information can also be collected eg plans for staying at the school or to describe intended career paths.</li> <li>• After completing subject selections a selection report and payment summary can be downloaded and printed.</li> <li>• In 2012 existing counselling sessions will continue. Counsellors will be allocated a group of students to monitor.</li> <li>• On completion of the parent/student interview a unique login will be issued. Parents and students can then make selections using SSO.</li> <li>• Families without an internet service can gain access at the school via a school computer.</li> </ul> Following the presentation there was further discussion.	Michael to introduce SSO into the school.	Michael Camilleri

16	Principal's Report: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• One of the benefits of an IPS is the ability to move staff. This flexibility allowed MLSHS to secure the services of the Languages Level 3. This movement ability is a positive step for both the school and its staff.</li> <li>• Plans are underway to acquire an exchange teacher from Hangzhou for a period of 6 months. This is a groundbreaking initiative that will reap benefits for both the Hangzhou teacher and MLSHS students.</li> <li>• There is an audit team at the school analysing enrolments to assist with the implementation of Year 7 students. When audit results are known an appropriate response will be delivered.</li> <li>• A building plan for the Year 7s will go ahead. A request has been made to include other refurbishments at the same time to reduce costs.</li> <li>• NAPLAN testing has finished. Some parents withdrew their children, at short notice, in response to a newspaper article. These students automatically score under the benchmark.</li> <li>• Milton wished all senior students the best of luck with their exams.</li> <li>• IPS salary figures are still under consideration.</li> <li>• Members of the public continue to comment on the exemplary behaviour of MLSHS students during assemblies. Students are applauded for their values.</li> <li>• Resources for the 1:1 computer rollout are now exhausted. Computer reserves will be used to purchase class sets of note books for Year 9 students.</li> </ul>	Milton to continue to liaise with the Hangzhou teacher. Milton to respond to audit results.	Milton Butcher Milton Butcher
