Instructions were followed. • Ex-PoW commemorative service was held and allowed students to talk to those invited to gain knowledge on how they were impacted. Many students connected. • Years 10, 11 and 12 exams start shortly. • At the Assembly Year 7 counsellors were voted in. • UWA lecturer gave a talk on using languages after high school. • School student council have no concerns. Bernard Rumens and Adam Miles moved: 'The Board notes the Report' – CARRIED.

4.4	Staff Representative Report Anne Tumak advised the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Parent reporting sessions were held and attendance numbers were reasonable. • Career Expo held with more parents attending this year. Fundraising was done at the Expo by the Languages Support Group with food for sale. • Arts Festival feedback was that it was the best festival the school had in a long time with across the board participation. There were also more parents involved and activities were more varied. The Learning Area (Arts) was responsible and are to be congratulated. There were not as many senior school students. • Photo day was held with photos coming out in few weeks. There were a few problems with uniforms, mainly body piercing with students refusing to remove them and not being able to have their photos taken. • The Anzac Ceremony was very successful. Arthur Leggett gave a talk to students who acknowledged and connected with him and gave ongoing applause. Arthur has become a Lawley Legend. • During the holidays two students went to China with the Confucius Institute of UWA. They attended and stayed at the sister state Zhejiang University. • An Interact Program BBQ was organised by Rotary with students fundraising. This was very successful. The program has grown from 55 to 128 members. • The Teaching & Learning Group met and are going to the next stage to look at Practices, eg learning goals, learning area champion, success criteria. Jason Kim and Nigel Becroft moved: 'The Board notes the report' – CARRIED.
